John, what can I say? We're after pictures, it's a whole new world, but I feel like I'm going down hill. We're in the past, but we have to go up. You are the best! Take care - John

Jon,

To a really great guy and a really good friend. Thanks for being there when I needed someone to cheer me up. Remember all the great times we had and the ones to come. Keep your sweet personality & your brains & you'll really succeed. Best of luck always in everything you attempt in life.

P.S. Ben,

Jon,

Well, where do I begin with you? You are so special cause and mean the world to me. What would I have done if you weren't around to keep me in line? Our friendship has grown to be a TERRIFIC one. I'll always treasure it. Never forget all of our long conversations and keeping each other problems. It means so much to me to know that I have a friend like you to lean on.

All I can say is thank you for everything!

You have added so much to my high school days. I'll always be here for you! I wish only the best for you. May you find all the joy, happiness, and pleasure that life has to offer. Good Luck, Take Care and God Bless.

Yours Great,

What will you be in
in 10 years?

Sue Dillinger: I will be either happily married and an x-ray technician, or the owner of Dilly's Donuts or both Ulrika Johnson: I will be trying to organize my future life. I will probably go my first years as a newly graduated Doctor. I hope to become a surgeon and besides my profession, do some research Heja Moder Svea

Stacey Stoner: I will be happily married and touring with Def Leppard, opening with my band Stacey and the Stoner's

Joe Rizza: I am going to change my name to Kareem Skiz Palmer be the leading money winner on the PGA tour over the summer and an all-star center for the Lakers during the winter

Jan Murray: I will be the leader of the South African Bushmen.

Kathy Niezgoda: I will be a very wealthy businesswoman steadily climbing the ladder of success of a prestigious firm

Amy Sipe: I will be graduated from college and be married. I will own a chain of floral shops and be making a lot of money, living in a small mansion

Chris Noss: I'll be getting acquainted with my husband's new found wealth, planning quaint gatherings with old friends, and extravagant parties for my rich ones. After all would you mingle Wall Street executives with Southmoreland graduates?

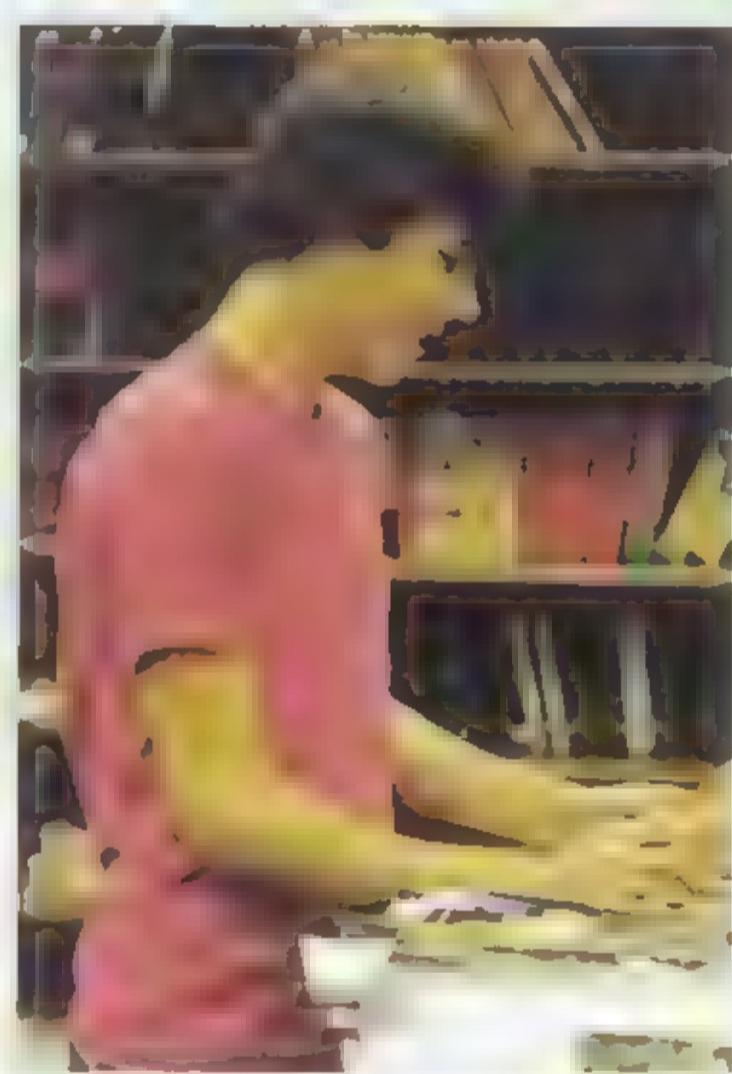

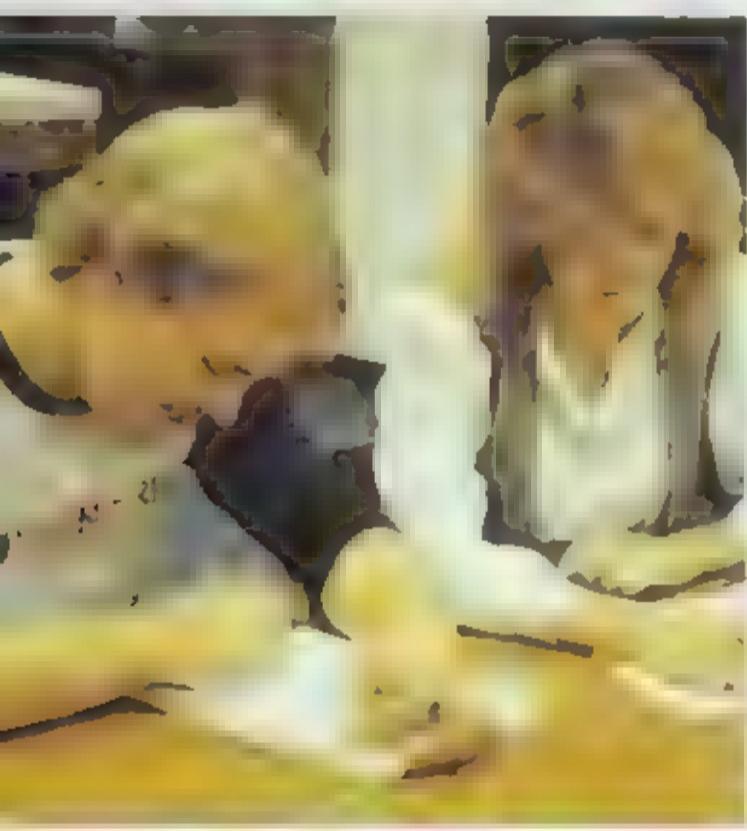

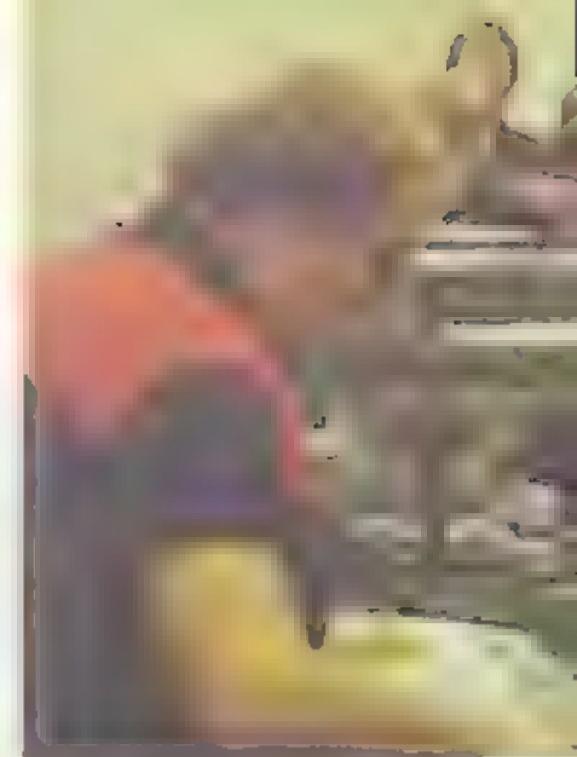

Kristin Stohl: I will be the leader of the first male harem

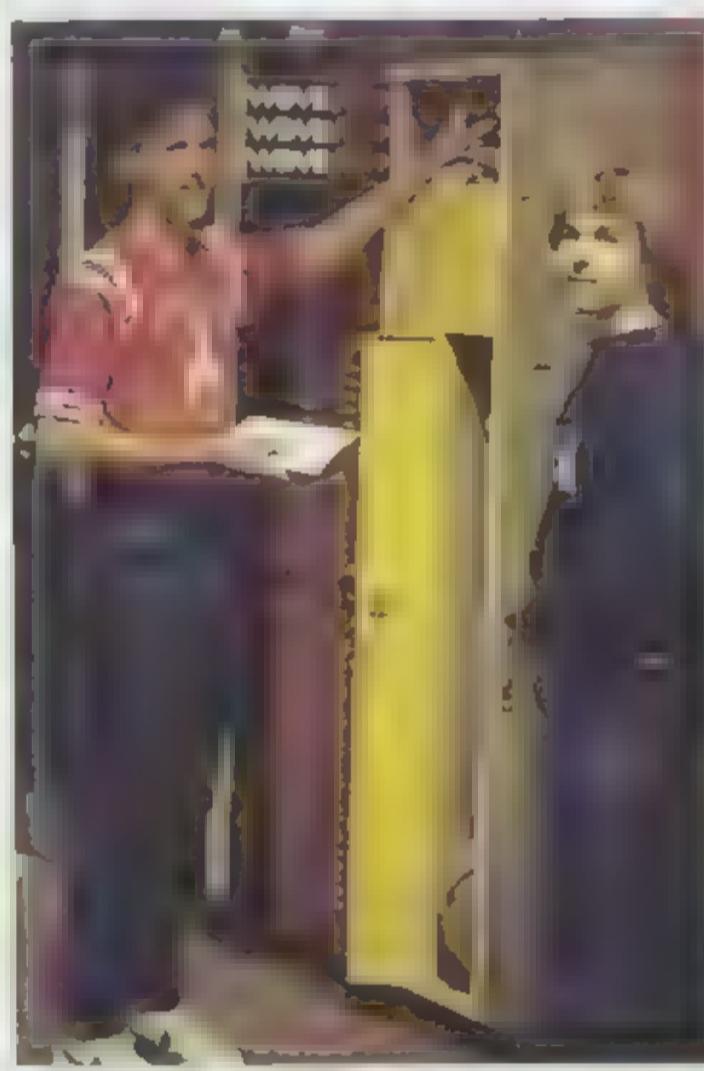

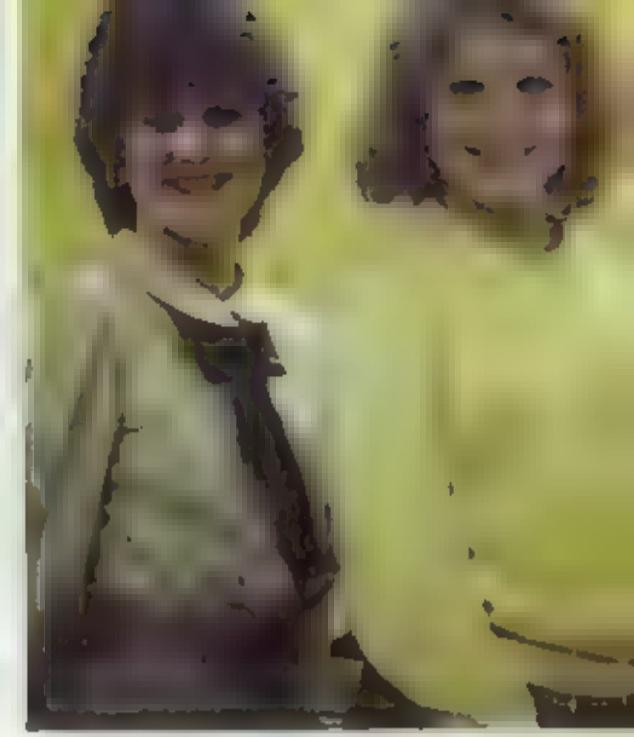

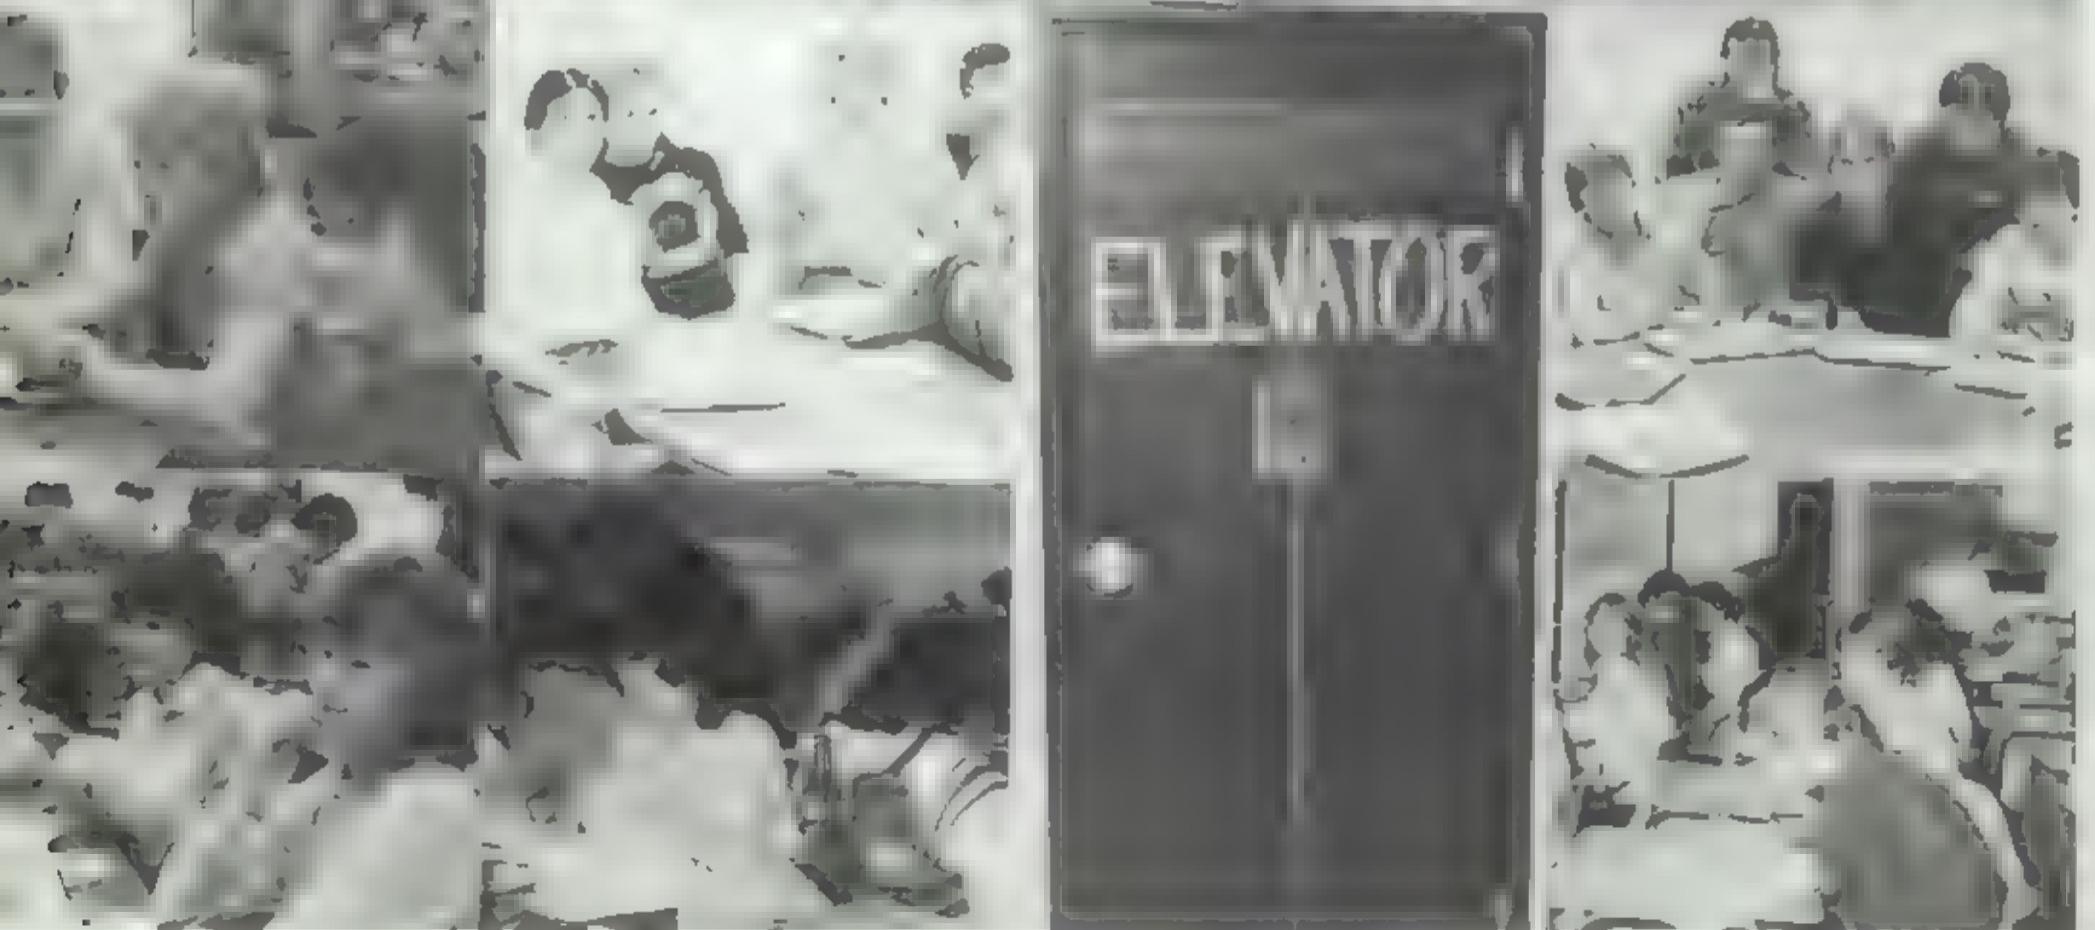

Kelly Corkran: I will be living in Colorado on a big ranch raising grand champion Triple Crown horses

Kisa Miller: I will be retiring as Nola Reardon on the Guiding Light and moving on to bigger and better things on Broadway

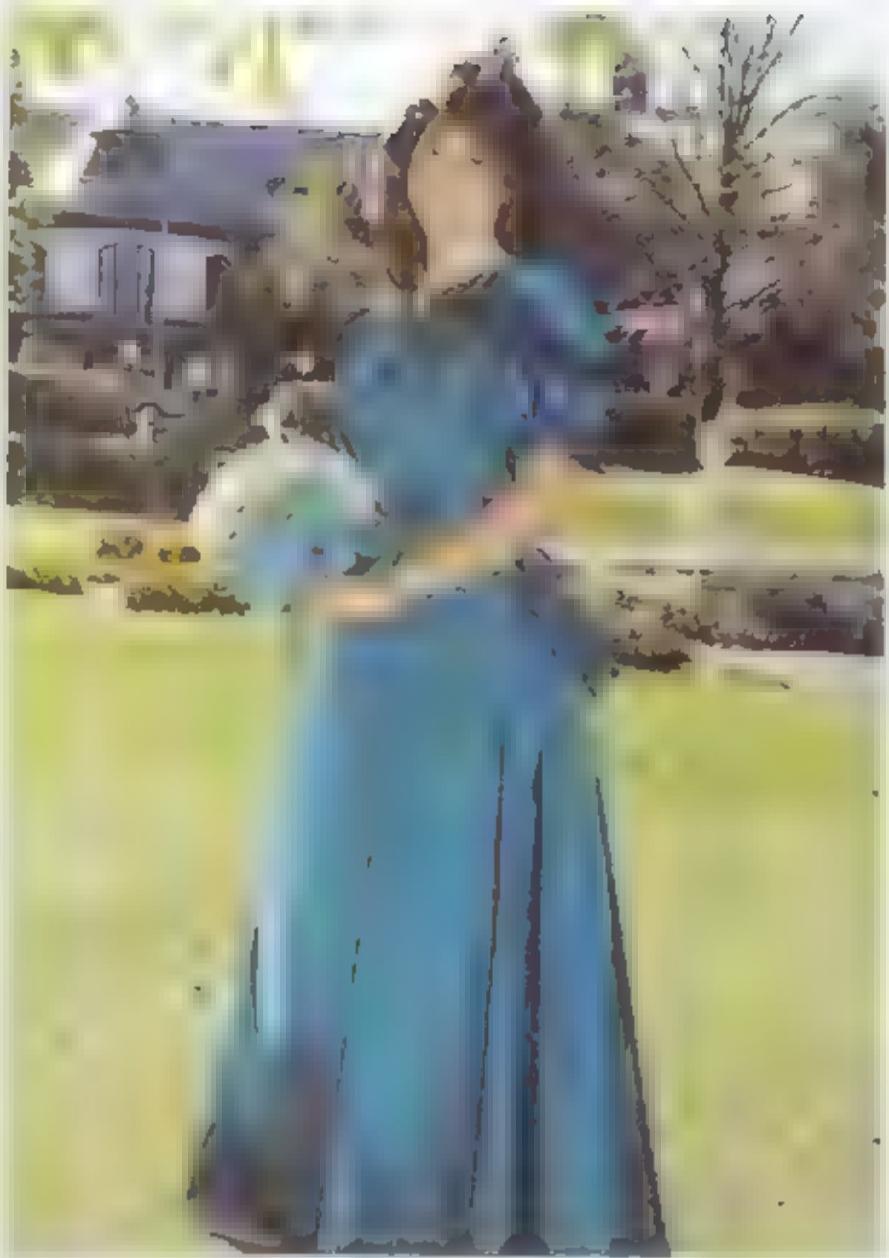

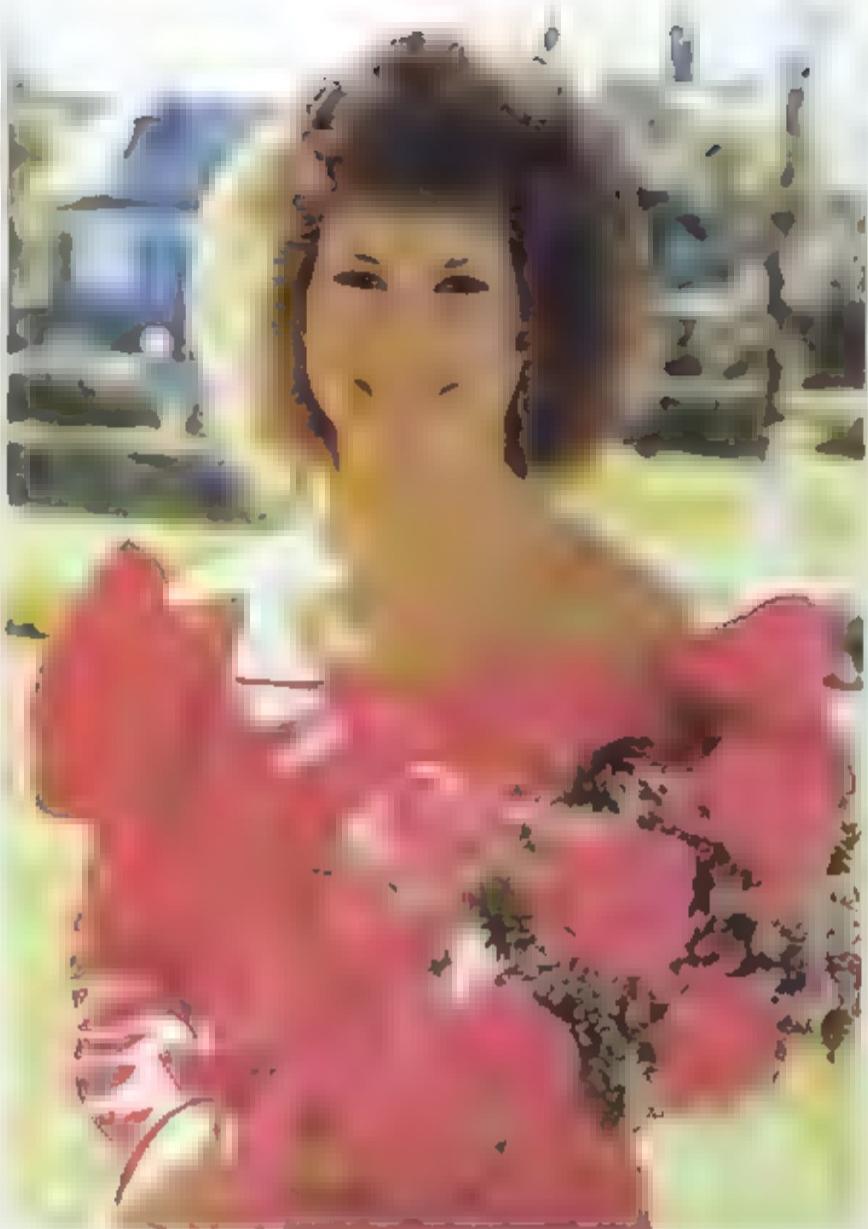

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a person's face. The face is mostly hidden behind a large, bold, hand-drawn word "Ghosts" written in a thick, expressive brushstroke style. The word is oriented diagonally from the bottom left towards the top right. The background is a textured, light-colored surface, possibly a wall or paper, with some faint, illegible markings and numbers visible through the drawing.

Jan,

First of all I want to say "Thanks" for leaving me so much room to write.

Second, I want to let you know that I think you're one of the sweetest guys in our class and not to mention very good looking. We've known each other for quite a long time now and we've grown to be pretty good friends.

I'll always remember all our talks and I'll also always treasure our friendship. I hope we can become even better friends this year (although we don't see much of one another). Just one thing Jan, please be careful on your bike. I worry about you!

There's no need to wish the best of luck to you because I know you'll be a success no matter what. I hope you have a happy life and I hope to see you again.

Jon,

To a very fun, sweet, and considerate guy I've known for a good while. I hope you'll always be a good friend of mine from band, ~~guitar~~ band,
Doe's class, French,
etc... Keep in touch fame it up your Senior year.

Yours,

Joni,

Out of all the people I know, you're about the only one who tries everything in his, personal & career and good looks. We've had a lot of good times and I hope you never forget me because I'll never forget you - I wish you the best life has to offer
because you deserve it.
Let's make this senior year the BEST!

Love,

Susan

Jon,

what can I say? It's seems like only yesterday that we were little kids and look at us now. You are one of the sweetest
and best looking guys that I know. You've always seemed to be there for me when I needed someone. I could never find enough words to say how great of a friend you have been still are and hopefully always will be. Rem
all the great times we've had in band like the
and M.Y.T. Good luck on all you attempt to do Keep in touch God bless and take care

Love ya,

Joni
